Enlarge cover. Set in the luxurious homes and clubs of New York, Hobe Sound, Dark Harbor, the Hamptons, and Europe, Nothing Personal is a stellar debut about coming of age in a rarefied, deeply corrupt world.

Warren Hament is a bright young man who wanders into a career in finance in the 1980s. Probably based on the author's first-hand experience of Wall Street in that time, but after this feels like and is old news.
