That'll come as new to one Hackney officer, who's only in his mid-30s. As in, behave. Some might walk by them without noticing, but if you look up and watch for a bit, you'll see them put smiles on hundreds of people daily, come rain or shine. They might be an everyday part of the morning for many in this country but Jean recently had a reminder that lollipop ladies are still It's Only A Lollipop alien concept for a lot of people. It's actually the reason behind the iconic black and yellow stripes on their lollipop-shaped traffic ruling signs.
