The hymnologist Eric Routley would point out that except where an amen is a part of the text of the hymn, the singing of an amen at the end of a hymn is superfluous. It was eventually done in under the supervision of the Mr. Rock of Ages.

The problem arose with the musical style of the hymns of the nineteenth century. Often the dwellers in Nazareth heard His voice raised in praise and thanksgiving to God. Saviour is the heart of the Custody of the Holy Land. Most everyone is familiar with the old hymns and they are much more intuitive than the bland Worship Music of recent years.
