Sometimes, the title of a story creates a setup that begs for fulfillment. This is the case with Vicious Romantic by Wrath James White. The poems collected in Double Visions range not only in form and meter, but in subject matter and content. The Mad and the Macabre contains two novella-length stories from veteran horror writers, one from Jeff Strand and one by Michael McBride.

Contains: Gore, otherworldly possession, violence, despair. Campbell's stories read the stories back to back in one collection is totally different.
