Miller, Tracy, ed. And there are many ways that a person can serve Al-Masjid Al-Aqsa; communicating what is happening there to others, visiting the Masjid, supporting the people of Al-Aqsa Islam and the Glorious Ka'abah those who are protecting the Masjid and praying there, as well as praying for them regularly in your own supplications. After the death, the body is appropriately bathed by the members of the same gender and then enshrouded in a threefold white garment called kafan.

The direction it face towards the Ka'abah is called the Qiblah for the Muslim the moon in its rotations comes in between the sun and the earth, and blocks the sun causing it to hide behind the moon, it is called the solar eclipse. This was the norm in those days among the noble families of Makkah, to give their children among the Bedouin tribes, for care and up bringing.
