An example of perhaps unintentional hostile design: bleachers at ball parks made of extruded aluminum instead of the traditional wood planks. Many minor offences are still liable to imprisonment—carving initials on a park bench for example, or stealing a milk bottle.

The provision of functional, attractive, and safe park space is considered to be a key factor in park design. On Sep 22, Michelle White added it to her list of contemporary-realistic-fiction picture-books. Andrew Hamlin at Northwest Asian Weekly gave it a 3. I was on an airport bus in the UAE a couple of years ago. Being so highly predictable on bullet train journeys, Rail Pass holders have the option of reserving a seat in advance, or opting for a seat in an unreserved car. There were signs at the main entrance to the park and at the seating area to indicate that the park contained an off-leash dog area.
