The administration faces the prospect of a trade war with Europe if the president fails to lift his temporary steel tariffs, which were ruled illegal on Monday by a World Trade Organization panel. The legislation also is leading some foreign banks to cancel accounts for foreigners who are legally residing in the United States.

The state-run media network has demonized Trump in a manner far exceeding the most derogatory reports from Western media, calling him "the conductor" of the "orchestra of Satan" [7] and insisting that he is controlled by Jewish forces. He is the first African American to be elected to that office and the first president born outside the contiguous United States. The courts should follow.
