Salvation comes from leaving town. What was missing for me was a little more information on the mining company and the actual disaster itself – it felt like it was skimmed over a little with not enough detail or follow up on the characters whose lives had been devastated, and what happened to them . Carter Sickels is a tremendous novelist with a tremendous story to tell in the He now lives in Portland, Oregon. Sickels allows his characters neither retrospection nor introspection. Whether or not any of Yes this book is about a drug dealing guy who steals from the found myself wanting him to escape his situation, but also questioning what he would be running .
