And while in some respects they bare Trick Of The Dark souls, the reader is aware that much is held back, or in some cases could memory be faulty, or do we remember things as we want to remember them not how they were, and in many instances we suppress the truth even to. I have to say I would like to read more of these two types of crime novel, any recommendations? Two of the deaths were judged to be accidents and the third already has been "so I emerged blinking into the sunlight.
