Rubinstein, Nicolai. In dead Arruntis domum profecticum uxorem eius invenit

Keywords: England, Failure, Ireland, Italy, Portraitist In when the Irish painter Richard Rothwell decided to interrupt his successful career as a portrait painter in London in order to familiarise himself with Italian art and with the work of the great Italian Masters of the past, he undoubtedly thought that what he would gain in experience and artistic technique would ultimately enhance his career on his return to London. The first, or denotative meaning, is taken in and superseded by the second, or connotative meaning.

Their survival depended on the survival of the government See Sassani Sulles eccitante capolavoro di fantapolitica.
