Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. Physical death is when our Body dies.

That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and

For an expanded statement of this argument, see Talbott b, -, and Talbott- But in any case, whereas heaven is in general thought of as a realm in which people experience the bliss of perfect fellowship and harmony with God and with each other, hell is in general thought of as a realm in which people experience the greatest possible estrangement from God, the greatest possible sense of alienation, and perhaps also an intense hatred of everyone including themselves.

But virtually all Christian theologians regards such a view, however common
