Photograph by Sarah Lonsdale. Buff paint in circular motions with a buffer. Just be sure the vacuum has a HEPA filter to keep the dust from recirculating back into the room—and back onto your walls.

One of the biggest mistakes is only evaluating the car from up close. Wash all. The automotive industry is constantly improving its paint shop either by upgrading existing facilities or by building new ones to take advantage of the latest technology available. And nobody wants .

For the walls, multiply the length of the longest wall by its height, then multiply by 2. Another advantage to this system is a smaller booth and reduced booth air makeup.
