Nice and simple, you just need to get a number of kills in a row without reloading. Other modes are available occasionally during time-limited periods, such as "Salvage", a three-versus-three king of the hill game type, "Combined Arms", where the Control and Clash modes are on Destiny with vehicles and turrets, "Inferno" The Dark Below modifier on multiple game modes Destiny points are solely scored on kills and the player's radar is disabled, Destiny The Dark Below two-versus-two version of Skirmish, "Mayhem" The Taken King modifier on Clash and Rumble where cooldown times for Destiny abilities are greatly reduced, and "Zone Control" The Taken King modified version of Control where points are only scored for maintaining control of zones, and not Destiny kills or point captures. Based on what we've already seen, this location will move, possibly on the hour.

Launch zombies out of a cannon and into the happy faces in this crazy sequel. The base game and Destiny four expansions were packaged into Destiny: The Collection. Initially, although there was an order to the story missions, they could be played in any order as more missions became Destiny.
