On top of that, one of the perspectives is in second person point of view, which is not my favourite. Jemisin For the next book in the trilogy? This book, hopefully, will make you think about your internalized racism and the prejudices that you hold without even realizing it. Justlikeitshouldalwaysbe. The possibilities are quite endless. This book is raw and painful at times, so very painful, but it's such an important story. This has a shot at a top ten or even top five series for me. Offersmaybesubjecttochangewithoutnotice.May15,pm.The powers magical abilities of Orogenes are refined in specific schools and attuned to these natural disasters. K Jemisin presents characters who subvert tropes and explores multiple sides of various characters.
